Foreword

This annual, with the theme "Play of Life," echoes the thought--the world is a stage and the people merely players. The "play" begins at infancy, and proceeds through the high school days. Here each is destined to choose a new "part" before continuing. Although, varying and occasionally changing, every "part" is played with the past, present, and future in mind.

Looking back into the past brings fond memories as well as knowledge. Our own memories of the past will return with every page of this yearbook.

The school year comes to a close, but this, your annual, will always hold each day of 1962-63 for you.

DEDICATION

"Stage call!" "All eyes up here!" or "Use your diaphragm!" are familiar statements to students in plays or chorus. Always striving for the very best, you have taught us good standards, in addition to bringing much enjoyment to us and the community.

In teaching, you have endeavored to help us learn as much as possible.

As a friend, you have given fun, help, and understanding.

Your encouragement has helped many to encounter unknown or unmet challenges. Your philosophies have touched us, too. And wholly appreciated are your many, many hours and efforts for us and the school.

We will remember you for all of these things as a part of our high school days.

To you Miss Helen Simon, our teacher, director, advisor, and friend, we are proud to dedicate this yearbook.

"If we shadows have offended,
Think but this, and all is mended,
That you have but slumber'd here,
While these visions did appear.
And this weak and idle theme,
No more yielding but a dream."

Freshman Class

As the curtain goes up on Act One, the Freshman class is found shuddering with stage fright in their first play, Tornado Week. As the play wore on, they became more experienced in their starring roles as new members of Yelm High.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomores, who have memorized their parts well, take over in Act Two. Being talented actors, they won the competition for the best float in the Homecoming Parade. Their act is a deafening one, as we find them usually winning the class competition at pep assemblies.

Junior Class

The curtain rises on Act III showing the Juniors, the more experienced members of the cast. They have learned the merits of teamwork which is revealed by their second place wins in the Homecoming Parade and in the magazine drive. Teamwork again was shown in their first formal dance effort, the Junior Prom. Janet Olson and Jaap Gerlings were co-chairmen of the dance.

Sno-cones were sold which raised money for the class. Karen Needles was in charge of the concession.

Senior Class

Senior History

by Pat Mosman

As the curtain rises on Act I, 56 eager and frightened Freshmen enter high school in 1959. Leading them are Darlene Hawkey, their class president; Bob Jones, vice president; Cynthia Hull, secretary; and Arney Rogers, sergeant-at-arms. Tornado week is in progress along with initiation. The class is seen carrying books, saluting seniors and reciting poems. In the initiation assembly yells and laughs are heard as Camp "K" kids, chipmunks, and beautiful Chinese women appear. Also seen coming into high school with the class is the well-known demerit system. The class seems to find out a lot about this. As the year progresses, the Freshmen hold their dance, "When You Wish Upon A Star." The "tough bounce" now popular, is being danced. The girls are seen wearing baggy sweaters and pointed shoes. The boys start wearing pegged pants and white sox. At the end of the year students who have a perfect attendance are: Judy Butler, Kirby Hull, Sid Willuweit, Judy Triplett, Linda McCarten, Darlene Hawkey, and Bob Jones.

The Play progresses and Act II is begun. Now there are 60 students in the Sophomore class. Officers are all boys this year with president, Fred Ferguson; vice president, Bob Jones; secretary, Robin Phillips; and sergeant-at-arms, Dennis Grinde. Kennedy wins the Presidential election, making some students happy and others unhappy. During National Education week, the class wins a trip for having the most parents visit school. Bringing distinction to their class are: MaryAnne Harness when she won a trip to Waterloo, Iowa, to the National Dairy Cattle Congress; Diana Koeppen and Shirley Hughes as they are elected second team yell leaders; and Cheri Demich as a member of the sextet, which won a superior rating. Fads currently seen are tennis shoes of all shades and also the "twist." The Sophomore Hop with the theme "Roaring 20's" is a huge success with costumes and contests. Sophomores eligible for Honor Society this year are: MaryAnne Harness, Pat Mosman, and Dianne Tobin. As the year comes to a close, more honors are bestowed on classmates at the awards assembly: Judy Butler, Kirby Hull, Barbara Perona, and Judy Triplett have perfect attendance for the year. Pat Mosman is awarded best actress for the year. Mary Lou Ismay and Loren Wright receive the National Educational Development Test Scholastic Achievement Award.

Fifty-seven students are cast as Juniors as the curtain rises again on Act III. Sid Willuweit is leading as president; with MaryAnne Harness, vice president; Pat Mosman, secretary; and Mardene Sios and Dennis Grinde, sergeant-at-arms. They come back to a remodeled school with no auditorium, a new classroom, and lockers downstairs. Soon a key switch is installed in the downstairs boy-girl lockers. Many of the Juniors are seen taking trips. Sid Willuweit is chosen to go the Waterloo, Iowa, this year to the National Dairy Cattle Congress. Pat Mosman attends Leadership Camp at Waskowitz. Pacific Slope Press Clinic delegates are Sid Willuweit and Nora Hayes. Mary Lou Ismay, Kirby Hull, Pat Mosman, Diane Stewart, Linda Whited, and Mary Anne Harness are chosen to attend a drama conference at the University. Cliff Reichel is a delegate to the state FFA convention at Pullman. To earn money, the class sells sno cones, and are seen working together on many projects. The Seattle World's Fair attracts many. Skirts are seen shorter now with the girls wearing teased hair and bows. The boys start wearing collar bars. Another first this year is the consideration of consolidation of surrounding schools. Of great importance is the Junior Prom, "Over the Rainbow." It is lavishly decorated and turns out to be a grand success. Dianne Tobin and Dick Willis are the reigning prince and princess. Girls from the class on the pep staff are: Diana Koeppen, Shirley Hughes, and MaryAnne Harness. Loren Wright is seen joining Honor Society and Mary Lou Ismay, Diane Stewart, and Linda Whited join Pat Mosman in Masquers, honorary Thespians. Bringing honors to the class are: MaryAnne Harness as Yelm's candidate for the "I Speak for Democracy" contest; Judy Butler, Kirby Hull and Linda McCarten have perfect attendance; Dianne Tobin and Kirby Hull receive the Best Citizen Award; and Bob Jones receives the free throwing accuracy award.

As Act IV opens, we see Mardene Sios as president; Kirby Hull, vice president; Cheri Demich, secretary; and Dennis Grinde again as sergeant-at-arms. The students moan as the price of lunches goes up to 30¢. As seniors, the class handles initiation. Over the summer, Mardene Sios and Pat Mosman have attended Girls' State and Sid Willuweit and Kirby Hull have attended Boys' State. Sid Willuweit also wins a trip to Chicago to attend the National 4-H Congress as Washington State's 4-H Achievement Champion. A new activity seen this year is the Homecoming Parade along with the rest of the Homecoming festivities. It appears a successful event. Also new this year is the organization of the National Thespians. Seniors eligible for this MaryAnne Harness, Kirby Hull, Mary Lou Ismay, Pat Mosman, Diane Stewart, Linda Whited, Sid Willuweit, and Loren Wright. More honors are now won by members of the class. Dianne Tobin is the DAR candidate. Linda Whited, as Tornado News Editor, is the Pacific Slope Press Clinic Delegate. Awarded outstanding actress of a play and joining Masquers is MaryAnne Harness. Selected for all Northwest Chorus are Cheri Demich and Loren Wright; and Robin Phillips and Kirby Hull are chosen for the select band. Ron Bates is a representative to the Science Lecture Holiday program. Fads seen are more and different sweat shirts for the boys, petticoats, patent leather, fur-collared coats, and wig hats. To be remembered are Telstar and the Cuban crisis. The Senior Ball is held with the theme, "Silver Bells," and Lynn Mastick and Les Mae reign over the dance. It is profitable and successful, and the class is again proud of their record of jobs and activities well done.

With graduation on May 24, 1963, this Act IV ends. But the play, acts, or scenes for these individuals will not stop. The class, when choosing their motto, indicate that they will go on making every day an important one. "Today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and each tomorrow a vision of hope."

Senior Ball

Once upon a December night, "Silver Bells" echoed the romantic music of Dick Redman's orchestra from the "busy side-walks" of our cafeteria "dressed in holiday style." "People passing, greeting smile after smile" danced til the magic hour of midnight surrounded by an enchanting toy shop, a one-reindeer sleigh, and "Frosty." Soon it would be Christmas Day, but for this special night Santa was forgotten and Lynn Mastick and Les Moe were crowned Queen and King by our Senior class Vice-President Kirby Hull. Tiny crown-bearers, Edie McMonigle and Bobby Aschenbrenner, lead the royal procession of princes and princesses, representing all four classes, to the wooded glen which enshrined their thrones.

The Girls' League, to begin the year, held a special "get-acquainted" meeting, to make sure freshman and new students would feel welcome.

This year Girls' League sponsored the school's first Homecoming parade. Entries from the classes and clubs competed for the Homecoming Parade Cup. The Sophomore Class float won the prize.

An Alumni Attendance Award was offered on a competitive basis to promote out-of-school attendance at the Homecoming Dance. The Class of 1962 won the plaque.

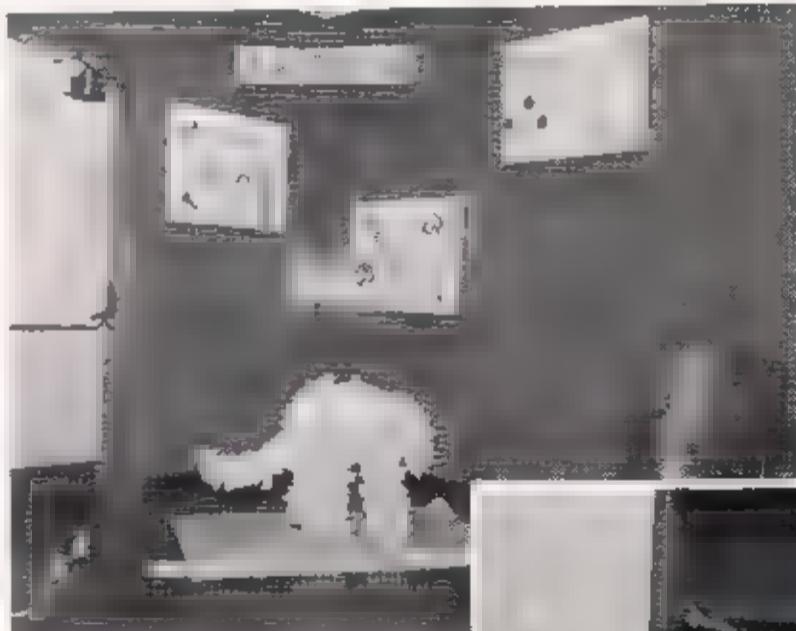

For Christmas activities, the Girls' League decorated the school and then donated many of the decorations to the McKenna Home. Place cards and centerpieces were also made for the home. A Christmas party was held with the Block Y girls.

Helping a child overseas was another project started.

Nine times, a Girl of the Month was chosen on the basis of her contributions to the school. From these girls a Girl of the Year was chosen.

In the fall and spring, the officers attended the Southwest Washington Girls' League conferences.

The climax of the Girls' League activities was the Mother-Daughter Banquet in May, honoring mothers. The program consisted of a guest speaker, a style show announcement of the Girl of the Year, and the installation of the new officers.

Thespians

This was another big year for Thespians, with the production of "The Curious Savage" in the fall and "Our Town" in the spring. Another big event of the year was the granting of a National Thespians Charter to our new Yelm High School Troupe No. 1373.

Membership in National Thespians is reached when an individual earns a total of ten points working on drama-related projects. Our local Troupe was constituted and seventeen charter members initiated on December 17.

Masquers is our local Thespians honorary. Membership is limited and only three new members are chosen after each play. Choice is based on the size of the individual's contribution of Thespians, as well as the quality of his work. Those now holding membership are: Linda Whited, Pat Mosman, MaryAnne Harness, Diane Stewart, Jaap Gerlings, Jean Vancil, Terry Gould, and Mary Ismay.

"The Curious Savage"

"The Curious Savage," a play showing the contrast between the inmates of the Cloisters, a mental institution, with Mrs. Savage's children and the outside world, was presented November 16 and 17.

Play cast members were: Mary-Anne Hemess, (Mrs. Savage); Sid Willuweit, (Titus); Jean Vancil, (Lily Belle); Mike Murphy, (Samuel); Pat Mosman, (Fairy May); Muriel Pierce, (Florence); Jaap Gerlings, (Hannibal); Paul Fish, (Jeffrey); Mary Lou Ismay, (Mrs. Paddy); Janice Henderson, (Miss Wilhelmina); Loren Wright, (Dr. Emmett); and Terry Gould, (Understudy).

The director was Miss Helen Simon with Jane Eide as assistant director.

"We're really not a very bright family, are we?"

"Aaaaaah!"

"You said you'd found the bonds!"

"Now, how did you know this was just what I needed?"

"Our Town"

"Our Town" was presented by the Thespians on March 28, 29, and 30.

The cast included: Jaap Gerlings, (Stage Manager); Pat Mosman, (Emily); Terry Gould, (George); Sid Willuweit, (Mr. Webb); Mary Lou Ismay, (Mrs. Webb); Paul Fish, (Dr. Gibbs); MaryAnne Harness, (Mrs. Gibbs); Marjan Kravik, (Rebecca); Jerry Cowles, (Wally); Jane Eide, (Mrs. Soames); Roger Gillion, (Constable Warren); John Sias, (Joe & Si Crowell); Jim Henderson, (Howie Newsome); Kirby Hull, (Professor Willard); Jennie Murphy, (Woman in the Balcony); Mike Murphy, (Man in the Auditorium); Linda Whited, (Lady in the Box); Loren Wright, (Joe Stoddard); Ron Bates, (Simon Stimson); Artie Lefebvre, (2nd Dead Man); David Stegall, (1st Dead Man); Kathy Johnston, (1st Dead Woman); Marilyn Mosman, (2nd Dead Woman); Earlene Harness, Diane Stewart, and Annie McAtee, (Extras).

Jean Vancil assisted Miss Helen Simon in directing.

Stage call.

"But Julia! To have the organist of a church, drink, and drunk year after year."

"I've never felt so alone in my whole life, and George over there, I hate him."

"Charles Webb, are you talking about that incubator again?"

Around the School

The scenes shift rapidly as the backdrops are changed by Nature's stage hands. Shortly after Queen Dianne reigns over the Homecoming festivities, "Silver Bells" are heard initiating the holiday season. The Christmas program, half times, Junior Prom, Puyallup fair, and clean-up day, along with all the other scenes from Yelm High create our 1962-63 production.

Homecoming Queen Dianne

Homecoming

Queen Dianne + Parade + "I Remember You" = Homecoming 1962

We, the present students of Yelm High School, hope to institute these festivities into tradition. A torch lit serpentine through town to the school field commenced the event. The torches sparked the bonfire, which became the flaming pyre of the Tumwater Thunderbirds. Dianne Tobin was chosen to reign over the activities and she and her princesses, Pat Mosman, Lynn Mastick, Shirley Hughes, and Maryanne Harness, rode in a place of honor in Yelm's first homecoming parade. The whole community backed the parade. That evening we played the Thunderbirds on our home field. Bob Jones, ASB President crowned Queen Dianne at half time. Alumni and students attended the dance "I Remember You" after the game, where the Class of "62" was awarded the alumni attendance plaque.
